2. MobaXterm installation

Official website: <https://mobaxterm.mobatek.net/>

The image shows the MobaXterm website header and a screenshot of the application interface. The website header includes the MobaXterm logo, navigation links (Home, Demo, Features, Download, Plugins, Help, Contact), social media icons, and buttons for 'Customer area' and 'Buy'. The application screenshot shows the MobaXterm window with a terminal session to a Debian system. The terminal output includes messages about launching xkbcomp, GLX initialization, and X11 forwarding. A status bar at the bottom of the application window displays system metrics like CPU usage, memory, and network speed.
